

Daily Planet

Customer and Employee Relations Directorate,
Internal Relations and Communications Department

Thursday, Aug. 9

2001

Space Shuttle Discovery set to launch Thursday

Space Shuttle Discovery is set to launch at 4:38 p.m. CDT Thursday on its 12-day STS-105 mission. This mission will deliver the Expedition Three crew and a host of supplies and scientific racks and experiments to the International Space Station. Discovery also will return the Expedition Two crew to Earth, ending more than five months in orbit.

U.S. flag at half-staff through Monday to honor Sid Saucier

Get paid to quit smoking. Sign up on the Web at: www.quitcigs.org

Computer security training should be completed by Friday

Marshall civil servants and contractors should complete their computer security training by Friday. Training modules are located on the Web at: <https://solar.msfc.nasa.gov/>. Organizational computer security officials can answer questions about using SOLAR or completing the training modules. Problems with SOLAR can be resolved by calling 544-HELP, Option 0.

Friday is last day to order T-shirts for Family Fun Day

Friday is the last day to purchase T-shirts for Marshall's Aug. 25 Family Fun Day. For an order form, visit "Inside Marshall."

Review Safety Bowl questions on 'Inside Marshall'

<http://inside.msfc.nasa.gov>